

Last we checked, Samaria is a good way off from here, but you are just four steps away from becoming a Good Samaritan. Jesus told his story as a way of setting a good example for us to follow by caring for a stranger and taking responsibility for his need. Here's how.

Last we checked, Samaria is a good way off from here, but you are just four steps away from becoming a Good Samaritan. Jesus told his story as a way of setting a good example for us to follow by caring for a stranger and taking responsibility for his need. Here's how.

b. buy... the following items: gallon-size zip top bags, bottled water, granola bars, cheese/peanut butter crackers, toothbrushes, toothpaste, socks, liquid soap, small New Testaments, etc.

b. buy... the following items: gallon-size zip top bags, bottled water, granola bars, cheese/peanut butter crackers, toothbrushes, toothpaste, socks, liquid soap, small New Testaments, etc.

a. assemble... the items in zip top bags, and stow them away in your car within reach of the driver's seat.

a. assemble... the items in zip top bags, and stow them away in your car within reach of the driver's seat.

g. give... a bag to anyone you see who is asking for food, money, work, etc.

g. give... a bag to anyone you see who is asking for food, money, work, etc.

s. say... that you will pray for them...and then do it. Ask their name. Let them know that you are giving the bag because God has given to you, and you want to give to them.

s. say... that you will pray for them...and then do it. Ask their name. Let them know that you are giving the bag because God has given to you, and you want to give to them.

In this life we cannot do great things. We can only
Do small things with great love. —Mother Teresa

In this life we cannot do great things. We can only
Do small things with great love. —Mother Teresa